Local Allocation Process 2022	You will preference the training practices and will be allocated to practices based on your national ranking. All successful trainees will be sent a link, after recruitment has been completed, which will contain a practice profile of the approved training practices in the trainees' allocated area. This will take place early July. The trainee will then rank all of the practices in their allocated scheme and will be advised of their allocated training practice on week commencing 11 July.
Overview	All foundation trainees will have access to state of the art simulation facilities across London &amp; Kent, Surrey and Sussex including phantom head skills labs and simulation suite for training in medical emergency &amp; crisis resource management. HEE London &amp; KSS runs a comprehensive induction for all FDs which includes the opportunity to refresh hands on skills in the simulation facilities, before starting clinical work at the start of the training year. Most study days will be practical based. All FDs will be involved in a range of community-based preventive projects as well as evidence-based projects. Note: HEE London &amp; KSS operate a stringent policy on annual leave. Annual leave is not permitted during term times and attendance on all study days is compulsory. All foundation dentists must also attend the full study programme and work full time in practice including working on non-study days at the practice. Please do not apply to this region if you are unable to commit in full to our policies.

Foundation dentists are paid according to the nationally agreed salary in each of the three UK countries involved in this nationally coordinated recruitment process:

- For England and Wales the exact figure appears in the Statements of Financial Entitlement published periodically by the Departments of Health for England and Wales. For Northern Ireland this is published in the Statement of Dental Remuneration (SDR).
- Please note that the figure published and applicable at the date of application may not be the same as that in force at the time of starting in post.
