Overview

Dental Foundation Training should be a memorable year which you enjoy and those involved in Foundation Training will endeavour to make this happen for you.

Training practices and Educational Supervisors are carefully selected via a rigorous, competitive recruitment process involving pre interview practice visits. We have a dedicated group of ESs and teams who provide the necessary support to aid in your personal development

The study day centre at Stoke is adjacent to the hospital and is an independent modern building with car parking. It is a few miles from junctions 13 and 14 of the M6 motorway. Stafford train station is a mile away. The team at Stoke are both experienced and supportive of foundation training.

The study day sessions primarily focus on small group teaching in a suitable educational environment which encourages peer review and interaction with colleagues. In addition, there are clinical "hands on" days at Birmingham Dental School which are used for oral surgery, crown and bridgework, endodontics, restorative techniques training and these are facilitated by experienced clinicians.

Foundation dentists should gain a wide variety of experience within the training practices and this is monitored closely during the year using a combination of the e portfolio, midyear visits and peer discussion.

We encourage continual professional development and provide help and support throughout the year.

Foundation dentists are paid according to the nationally agreed salary in each of the three UK countries involved in this nationally coordinated recruitment process:

- For England and Wales, the exact figure appears in the Statements of Financial Entitlement published periodically by the Departments of Health for England and Wales. For Northern Ireland this is published in the Statement of Dental Remuneration (SDR).
- Please note that the figure published and applicable at the date of application may not be the same as that in force at the time of starting in post.
